6) 2018 Trolley Tour
The Commission looked at the 2019 Trolley Tour spreadsheet and went through the 2018 numbers for costs and profit. The members discussed possible options for the 2019 route. It would be good to start at City Hall again. They also discussed a possible boat tour, but it would need to be a much different tour than the trolley tour since there would only a small number of people who could attend and getting into and out of a boat could be problematic.

The members reviewed a list of homes that were featured on previous tours, as well as, the past tour books. L. Solak suggested that each member think about some homes or a possible route.

7) Member Inquiries and Reports
D. Kenney suggested the commission look into presenting preservation awards. They had done something similar previously and it would be good to bring it back. She suggested 58 Williams street for the work they did to restore the façade.
