NEWS YOU CAN USE

June 2020

A Newsletter for Crystal Lake Employees

IN THIS ISSUE:

- Reminders
- New Employee
- Retirement
- Employee Achievement
- Employee Anniversaries

Hello employees! In this month's newsletter, we will discuss open enrollment reminders, introduce a new employees to the City, congratulate an employee on a recent achievement, and recognize employee anniversaries.

If your Department has reached a goal that you are proud of, please send those stories to jmeyer@crystallake.org to include in the next issue.

Reminders

As a reminder, the new plan year begins on July 1st, which will also reset your health and dental insurance deductible and out-of-pocket maximums.

If you elected flexible spending benefits for the 2020/2021 plan year, your funds will be available on July 1st. For any remaining funds in your flexible spending account from the 2019/2020 plan year, the services must be incurred by June 30th and receipts submitted by September 30th.

With the completion of open enrollment, the open enrollment button has been removed from the City's intranet and all documents are now located under the insurance button.
