Retiree Health Insurance

For those employees who are contemplating retirement within the next benefit plan year and who are eligible and wish to continue participating in the City's health insurance at the time of retirement, please keep in mind that only those dependents who are covered on your health insurance the day of your retirement, are eligible to continue participation as a retiree dependent. In other words, dependents may not be added to your health insurance plan upon or after retirement.