A COMMUNITY CENTER-FOCUSED LIBRARY

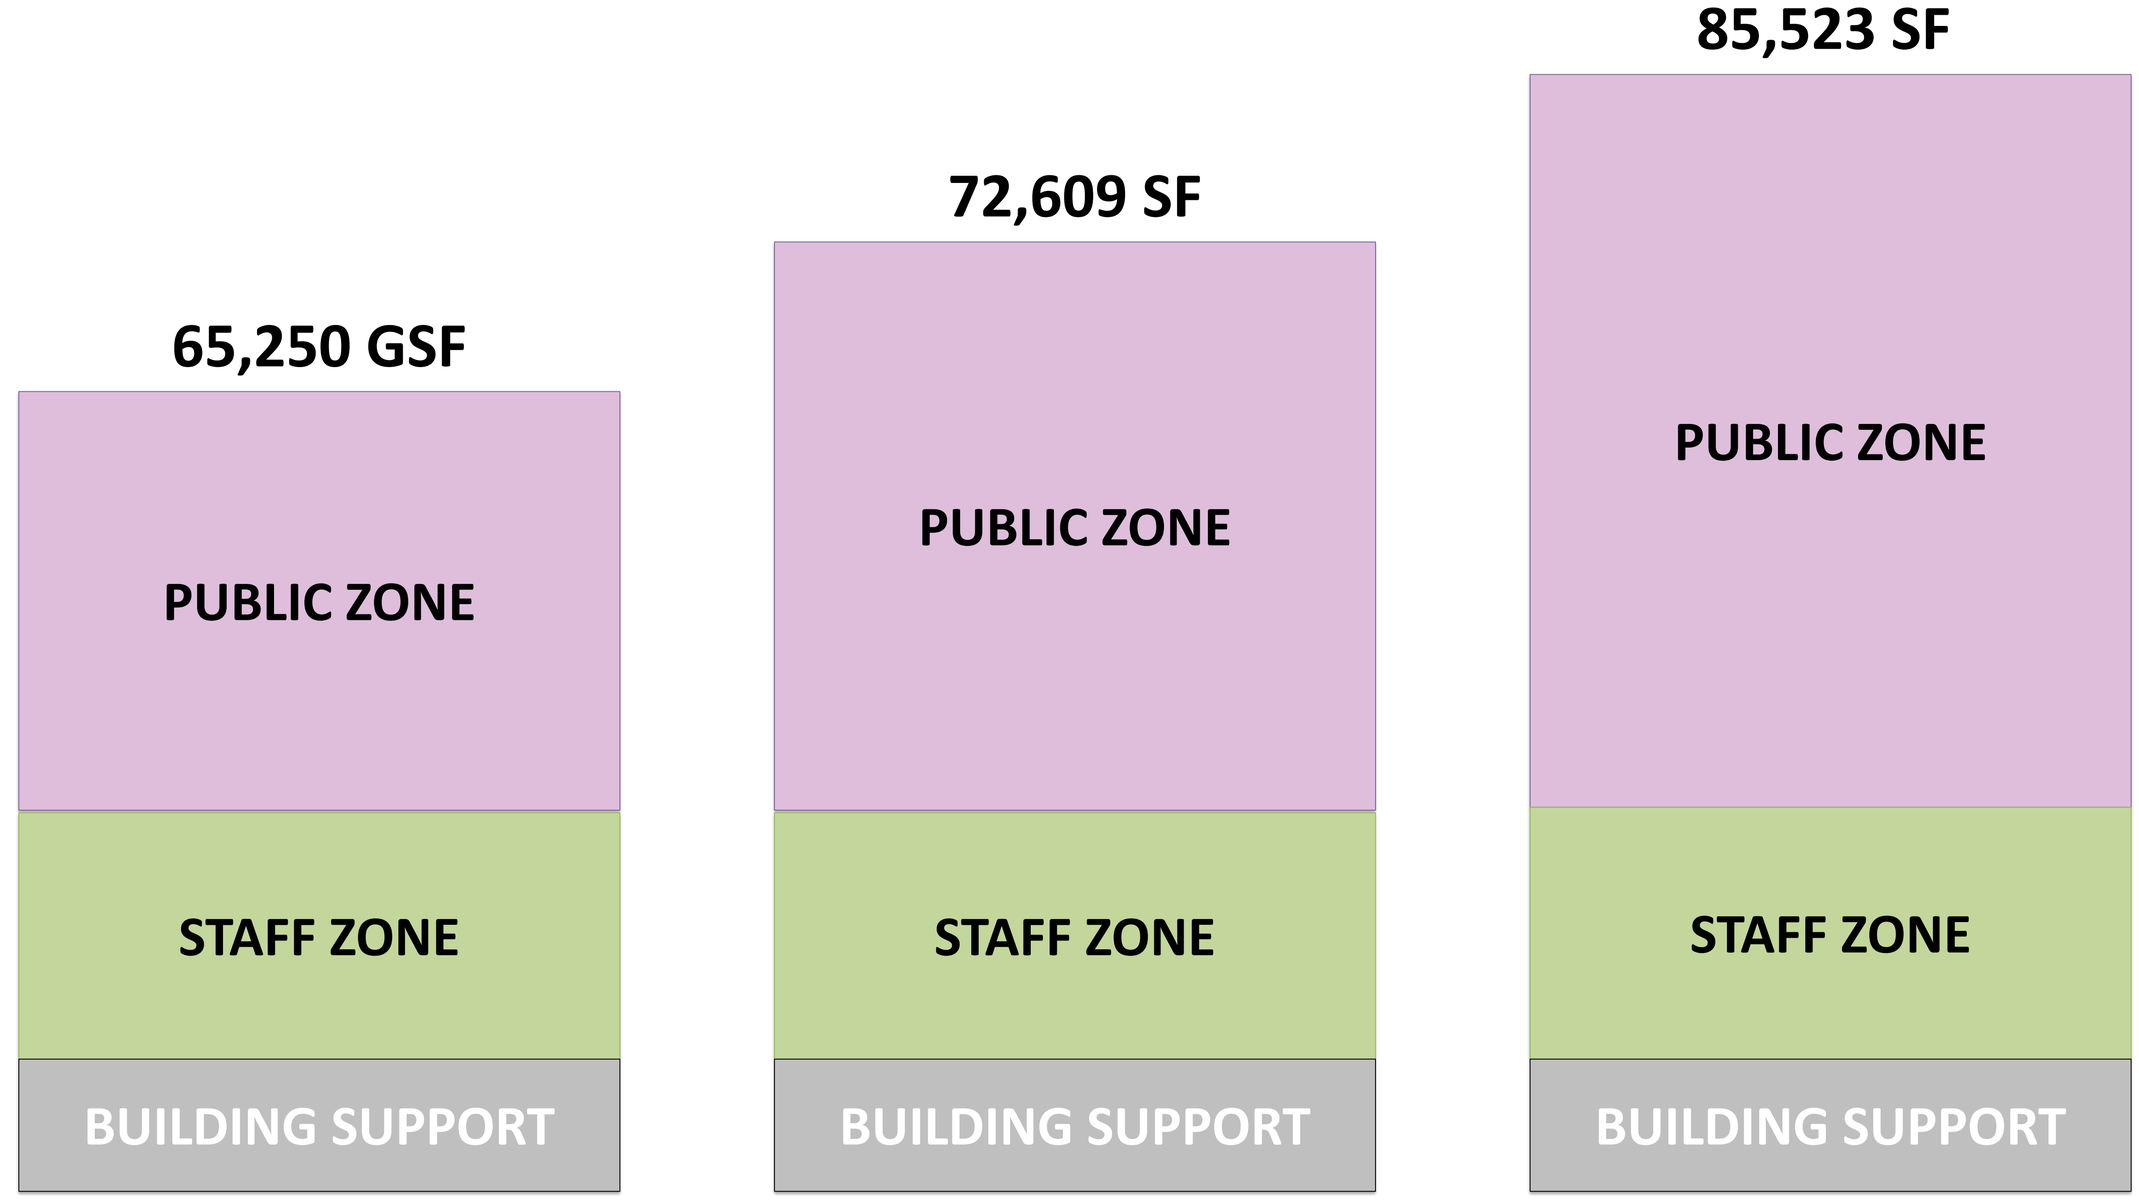

More room to learn, gather, create, and adapt.

The current public library delivers a growing range of programs, technology, civic uses, and community gatherings in 40,657 gross square feet.

A FUTURE LIBRARY SHOULD SUPPORT

TEEN SPACE + DIGITAL MEDIA + MAKER RESOURCES + GATHERING + ACCESSIBLE CIVIC USES

The library has studied their long-term space needs over the course of several years.

WHAT THIS MEANS

A library of the future will retain a strong library identity while offering more space for learning, technology, gathering, and community programs.
